To Whom It May Concern:

This Letter is in support of Mandy McClure for the past two years. I have worked as her peer for one year and as her supervisor for the second year. In this past year I have also been her co-coach of a Junior High track team. In the time that I have worked with Mrs. McClure It has been evident that she is very knowledgeable and truly enjoys working with kids.

Mrs. McClure is very organized in the classroom as well as in her coaching duties; I feel that her organizational skills are one of her strong points. Another of her strengths is her knowledge of her content areas. She makes a plan then follows it to completion. She is a very caring person and takes time to listen to her student's questions and answers them completely.

Perhaps her biggest strength is her willingness to devote whatever time is needed to help her students achieve their full potential. Mrs. McClure has excellent relationships with her fellow teachers, which helps create a positive work environment. Mrs. McClure is always very willing to compromise to help other teachers so those things go smoothly.

I highly recommend Mrs. McClure for any position in your School District, I truly believe that she would be an asset to your District.

Sincerely:

Dave Martell
Athletic Director

To Whom It May Concern:

This is a letter of recommendation for Mandy McClure who I have worked with for the past three years at Elbert School District. Mandy worked as our business and computer teacher, FBLA sponsor and a coach. During this time she was in charge of all the normal requirements of her jobs along with any other responsibilities that she was asked to take on around the school. Mandy's willingness to take on whatever was asked of her and her caring attitude toward children are two of her strongest attributes.

During the three years that I have worked with Mandy it was very apparent that she has an overwhelming desire to help students. She is always willing to spend extra time with a student working on a skill that they are having trouble developing. I have seen her working with her J.H. girls on volleyball skills after school and even volunteering to help H.S. throwers on the track team. Mandy also makes herself available to students or athletes that need to talk about anything even if it does not pertain to school. This aspiration to help children is what drives her to be a teacher.

Mandy also will spend whatever time was necessary to do her job. She is always willing to do whatever is asked of her by the administration. Mandy is one of the most organized teachers that I have seen in the nine years that I have been here. She always keeps everything clean and put away in her classroom so that she knows where to find her work and make sure that the computers are kept in good condition. She will try her hardest to do her job to its fullest and the best of her abilities.

I believe that Mandy has tremendous potential and should have the opportunity to realize that potential. If I can be of further assistance to you regarding Mandy, please feel free to call.

Sincerely,

Bob Beebe

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in support of Mandy McClure. I have been her direct supervisor for two years and during that time have found her to be a hard worker who is willing to do the extras.

Mrs. McClure has worked very hard to improve our business department during her employment here. She tirelessly has gotten our students involved in FBLA in which they are annually successful in state competition. She also has spent countless hours bringing our curriculum in line with national and state standards. Lastly, she never hesitates when asked to take on extra duties such as coaching Junior High athletics.

Mrs. McClure is a knowledgeable teacher who would be an asset to any district, so I would like to recommend her for a position in your school.

Sincerely,

David L. Black
